

City of Lompoc
Jim Darrah Public Servant Award
Nomination Form

Jim Darrah was a long-time City of Lompoc employee who loved and respected the people who lived in Lompoc and felt they deserved the best service possible from the City workforce. In memory of Jim, we are interested in recognizing a City employee who provides exceptional customer service. The individual receiving the excellent service can be either an internal or external customer. You may nominate a City employee of any level. Police and Fire personnel have their own employee recognition program and therefore are not eligible for this program.
