New Book Club Beginning at Lompoc Library The Literary Tea and Talk starts with a reading of Station Eleven

LOMPOC, CA, Jan. 4, 2017 – The Lompoc Public Library is now offering a book club, The Literary Tea and Talk, held monthly February through May.

The first book discussion, Station Eleven by Emily St. John Mandel, will be held at 6 p.m. on Feb. 21 in the Lompoc Public Library's Grossman Gallery, 501 E. North Ave.

Community members are invited to take part in a book discussion, while sipping on delicious tea, the third Tuesday of every month. Each month participants will explore a different literary genre or format. The program is free and open to all adults in the Lompoc community. Reservations are not necessary. Print, audio and large print copies of the title can be placed on hold through the library catalog, www.blackgold.org, and digital copies can be found through the library's OverDrive collection at www.blackgold.overdrive.com.

Participants are asked to plan ahead and reserve a book copy for each of the future meetings:

February 21st, Station Eleven by Emily St. John Mandel
March 21st, The Cuckoo's Calling by Robert Galbraith
April 18th, The Circle by Dave Eggers
May 16th, The Light Between Oceans by M. L. Steadman

Questions from the community on the book club can be directed to the Lompoc Library at: 875-8775.
