Lompoc Library Partners With In-N-Out Burger For Book Club

Lompoc Public Library System participates in children's reading program in which participants can earn a free hamburger or cheeseburger

LOMPOC, CA, March 9, 2017 – The Lompoc Public Library System invites children to participate in In-N-Out Burger's Cover to Cover Club children's reading program.

The program runs from March 4 to April 15. All children between the ages of 4 and 12 are eligible to participate. Those taking part may sign up at the Lompoc Library, 501 E. North Ave.; Village Library, 3755 Constellation Rd.; or at public stops of the Charlotte's Web Mobile Children's Library.

To register and participate in the program, each child must fill out a file card at the library. They will be given a reading log to list the titles of books that they have read. For every five books read and reported back to the library, children will receive a coupon for a free hamburger or cheeseburger redeemable at any In-N-Out Burger location. A parent or guardian must sign the reading log for every five books read. Children can receive up to three certificates for reading 15 books.

In-N-Out Burger provides this program to public libraries with the hope that by encouraging children to read through positive incentives, they will develop a lifelong love for reading. The closest In-N-Out Burger location to Lompoc is in Santa Maria.

Please call the Lompoc Library at 805-875-8781 with any questions regarding the Cover to Cover Club program.
