Abraham Lincoln Presenter To Visit Lompoc Library

*John Voehl will be discussing The Gettysburg Address and other highlights of Lincoln's life

LOMPOC, CA, May 8, 2017- The Lompoc Public Library is pleased to invite the community to a special presentation by President Abraham Lincoln impersonator and historian, John Voehl.

Join Voehl as he discusses the Battle of Gettysburg, the development and realization of the Gettysburg National Cemetery where Lincoln gave his famous speech during the Civil War on November 19, 1863, and other topics. With upwards of 20 years of experience and having put on more than 1,000 Lincoln presentations and appearances, Voehl is a crowd-pleaser.

This free presentation will begin at 6 p.m. on Tues. May 23 in the Grossman Gallery of the Lompoc Public Library, 501 E. North Ave.

For more information on Voehl's Lincoln presentations, visit: abelincolnalive.com.

Questions should be directed to the Lompoc Library at 805-875-8775.
