Lompoc Library Hosts Baby Storytime

New storytime for babies and their parents or caregivers provides activities, socialization

LOMPOC, CA, March 20, 2018 – The Lompoc Public Library invites the community to join us for a new storytime especially for babies and their parents or caregivers.

Baby Storytime will meet on Thursdays from 10:30 a.m. to 11 a.m. in the Children's Department of the library at 501 E. North Ave. for the next 12 weeks – March 22 – June 7.

During Baby Storytime, our storyteller will lead the group in rhymes, lap bounces, songs, and a short story for babies.

This storytime is designed to be developmentally appropriate for pre-walkers up to 12 months old, and focuses on developing a baby's pre-literacy skills. Older siblings are always welcome, and we invite participants to come early and stay late to play and socialize with other babies and parents or caregivers.

The Lompoc Library also hosts a Family Storytime in the Children's Department every Monday and Tuesday at 10:30 a.m. designed for toddlers and preschoolers, with a craft starting at 11 a.m. Bilingual Storytime is held every 2nd Wednesday of the month at 11 a.m. with a craft starting at 11:30 a.m.

The Village Library – 3755 Constellation Rd. – holds a Preschool Storytime every Wednesday at 11 a.m. with stories and songs led by a volunteer.

Community members with questions may call library staff with any questions at: 875-8781.
