Lompoc Library Partners with In-N-Out Burger for Reading Program Reading program enables children to earn a free hamburger or cheeseburger by reading

LOMPOC, CA, March 20, 2018 – The Lompoc Public Library System invites children to participate in In-N-Out Burger’s Cover to Cover Club reading program.

The program is running from now until April 14. All children between the ages of 4 and 12 are eligible to participate and may sign up at the Lompoc Library, 501 E. North Ave., Village Library, 3755 Constellation Rd., or public stops of the Charlotte’s Web Mobile Children’s Library.

To register and participate in the program, each child must fill out a file card at the library. They will be given a reading log where they can list the titles of books that they have read. For every five books read and reported back to the library, children will receive a coupon for a free hamburger or cheeseburger redeemable at any In-N-Out location. A parent or guardian must sign the reading log for every five books read. Children can receive up to three certificates for reading 15 books.

In-N-Out Burger provides this program to public libraries with the hope that by encouraging children to read through positive incentives, they will develop a lifelong love for reading. The closest In-N-Out Burger location to Lompoc is in Santa Maria.

The community is asked to call 805-875-8781 with any questions regarding the Cover to Cover Club program.
