Lompoc Public Library Holds Homework Club

K – 12 students can receive free tutoring at the library on Tuesdays and Wednesdays

LOMPOC, CA, March 29, 2018 – Homework help is on the way from the Lompoc Public Library!

The library invites Kindergarten through 12th grade students to come take part in “Homework Club” held in the Children’s Department at the Lompoc Library, 501 E. North Ave.

Homework Club is going on every Tuesday and Wednesday from 3:30 p.m. to 5:30 p.m. until the end of the school year; the last day the club will meet is Wednesday, May 30. Sign-ups are not necessary. On Tuesdays and Wednesdays, look for the Homework Club sign on the tables in the Children’s Department. Homework Club will not meet during the week of spring break.

During Homework Club, a volunteer tutor or library staff is available to assist students with their homework. The club also welcomes students who just want a place to do their homework.

An adult must accompany children 8 years old and younger.
